INTERNATIONAL FAIRS DIRECTORY

About us

The International Fairs Directory is the largest international platform offering a global overview of the current scene of fairs and exhibitions. The platform www.inter-fairs.com provides continuously updated information on thousands of regional, national and international fairs, millions of associated companies as well the organizers themselves. We specialize in offering high quality publicity, providing your enterprise with the unique opportunity to stand out among millions of fair participants in order to obtain valuable contacts of potential customers, providers or partners.

The international market is undergoing advancements and accelerated adjustments and every company has to be prepared for this rapid pace of change. The global fair market itself has undergone these changes in the last few years, resulting in more intense global competition among fair participants due in part to the increasing influence of the internet. Each company has different choices to present and showcase their enterprise and products. However, fairs and exhibitions remain one of the basic tools in the development and promotion of your company. We help you make your company known, improve above competitors and offer your business the chance to obtain valuable contacts.

The purpose of the order form

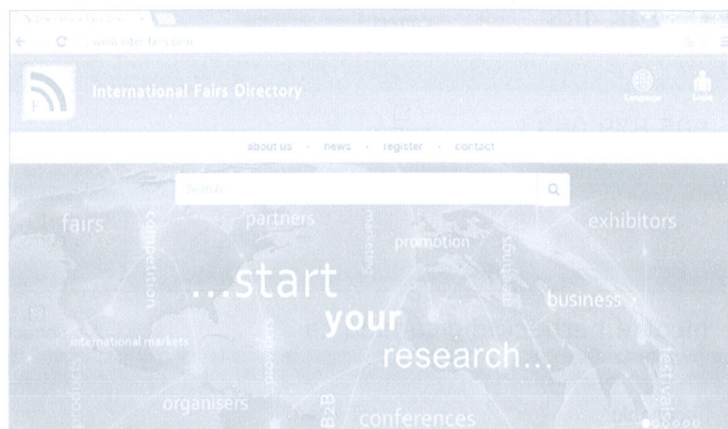

Upon receipt of the order form you have the opportunity to place a payable advert of great promotional effectiveness or, on the other hand, to keep your free basic entry. You are welcome to submit your modifications of your free basic insertion at www.inter-fairs.com following the instructions under the log-in section. The payable advertisement has to be ordered by signing the order form in the space of the legally binding signature. Attach all material you would like to be included in the advertisement (photos, text and video) and return them to us. Please mark all specific texts or photographs which you would like to be published. Upon receipt of your order our editorial team will endeavor to make the most of the information you provided or your given website. The payable insertion includes:

- Graphical highlight with your company logo and a higher ranking in search results
- Company presentation with various photos and a space for your company video
- A detailed list of all the fairs your company has attended
- Company information such as: name, address, telephone, fax, URL, contact person and email contacts, social media accounts, annual turnover, import/export, annual fair budget, year of foundation, VAT Reg. No., operation level, etc.
- A direct B2B contact service to get in touch with your enterprise
- Free update service during the complete term of contract

For further details or specifications do not hesitate to contact our customer service department.

Log in for free insertion

The documentation received by your company includes your personal log-in details in order to be able to access your existing entry under www.inter-fairs.com. If you wish to change this information please follow the instructions given under the log in section on our webpage to guarantee a successful update. Feel free to contact our customer service team in case you experience any problems.

Claims

Should an error or inaccuracy in the details supplied by the client for the publication of his advert be committed by MULPOR Company S.A., the subscriber will be entitled to a free insertion for the same period of time that the advertisement was inaccurately published once the contractual period has terminated. In case the error occurred due to mistaken information provided by the client, the publisher is free of all obligations and responsibilities.
